Continuation of Disposition of Claims: Claims pending in the application are 1058-1063,1065-1067,1069-1096,5397,5440-5446,5448-5454 and 5456-5485.

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 5457-5459 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 5457, 5458 and 5459 recite the limitation "the pyrolysis zone" in line 2 of each claim. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970);and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1058-1063, 1065-1067, 1069-1096, 5397, 5440-5446, 5448-5454 and 5456-5485 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1041-1080 of copending Application No. 10/131,285. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the hydrocarbon containing formation treated by the method of claims 1058, 5442 and 5449 of this pending application is deemed broad enough to encompass the oil shale formation of claims 1041, 1047 and 1048 of the copending application, which claims 1047 and 1048 of the '285 application includes the additional limitation(s) in herein pending claims

Art Unit: 3672

1058, 5442 and 5449 of controlling pressure as a function of temperature or controlling temperature as a function of pressure and establishing pyrolysis in the formation. It is further noted that the additional pyrolysis temperature range of about 270oC to about 400oC recited in the '285 claim 1048 is deemed to inherently or obviously occur in the establishment and maintaining of "a pyrolysis zone" in the claims pending herein. The specific heat output range recited in pending claim 5442 of "less than about 1650 watts per meter" is deemed an obvious matter of design or choice in carrying out the heating method of the '285 claims, based on routine experimentation for process optimization and/or the characteristics and composition of the actual hydrocarbon formation encountered in the field. Otherwise, the remaining claims of both this and the copending application appear to correspond.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
